Orphans and Childrens Home

OF THE

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

MT. VERNON, ILLINOIS

Gives Twenty-four hours of service to homeless children, gives loving Christian care to an average of fifty children each day.

We have to turn some away because of lack of room.

We ask:

Each church and Sunday school for a liberal Christmas cash offering.

A personal contribution to keep homeless children.

Barrels of canned and fresh fruit.

To be remembered in your will.

Let us tell you how to give us money while you live and you receive the interest during your life time.

Write us about children who should come to this Home or about people who want a child in their home.

Address:

THE OLD FOLKS HOME

MEMORIALS AND TRIBUTES TO LOVED ONES.

There is no finer tribute to dear ones either dead or alive, than a memorial in an old folks home. An old folks home is a service station for the aged. Statistics reveal that it adds an average of nine years to the life of those admitted to its benefits. Not only does it give length of years, but it brings rest, and quiet, and love, and care, and relief from the disquieting things of life. To place a memorial in such an institution, not only contributes to all these benefits, but encourages greater respect for old age and inspires others to help in such service. To the hundreds, who will visit the Old Folks' Home, the plates on the doors will tell this inspiring story of appreciation.

The Board has an attractive proposition in its sale of memberships which operates as an insurance policy guaranteeing care in old age.

Also in its sale of memorial rooms with a guarantee of occupancy on application.

All inquiries about memorials, memberships and resultant guarantees should be made to,

J. B. STOUT, Superintendent,
Lawrenceville, Illinois.

N. B.—If your will has a clause in favor of the Old Folks' Home, use the title at the head of this advertisement. It is our corporate name.

McKendree College

LEBANON, ILLINOIS

TESTED through ninety-eight consecutive years, a Christian institution offering high-class work leading to A. B. and B. S. degrees. Department of Education issues certificates to all caring to teach. All graduates have been placed in good high schools at excellent salaries.

Department of Science and Mathematics with strong pre-professional courses approved by the University of Illinois.

Department of Music, vocal and instrumental, leading to a degree, with strong work in Public School Music.

Department of Language, one of the strongest to be found in any small college offering Greek, Latin, German, French, and Spanish.

Department of Athletics, not excelled in any college in this part of the country. Constant demand for our graduates as coaches.

Our new modern Library is a place of beauty, comfort and service.

Upon motion of M. C. Foltz the following resolution was adopted:

At a special meeting of the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church duly and legally called and held at Lawrenceville, Illinois, on the 25th day of May, 1926, the following resolution, after being duly moved and seconded, was unanimously adopted, to-wit:

RESOLVED, That C. C. Hall, F. O. Wilson, T. B. Sowers, C. S. Tritt, Ressho Robertson, J. S. Cummins and M. C. Foltz, being the duly elected, legally constituted and acting Trustees of the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are hereby authorized to borrow the sum of $70,000.00 for the use of the Old Folks' Home at Lawrenceville, Illinois, and to secure the same by placing a bond issue against the following described property, to-wit:

> Beginning Fifty (50) Feet West of the Northwest Corner of Lot 87 in Hennessy's 15th Street Addition to the City of Lawrenceville, Illinois, thence South along the West line of 16th Street, Three Hundred Ninety-six (396) Feet, more or less, to the North line of Barnes' Sunny Side Addition, thence West Five Hundred Fifty (550) Feet, thence North Three Hundred Ninety-six (396) Feet, to the South line of Cedar Street, thence East along the line of said street Five Hundred Fifty (550) Feet, to the place of beginning, containing Five (5) Acres.

And the said Trustees are further authorized and directed to execute such papers, instruments, mortgages, notes and bonds as are necessary to consummate said loan or which they deem advisable for the issuance of said bonds. It is further

RESOLVED, That the contract entered into on March 5th, 1926, by and between Burkholder Bond Company of St. Louis, Missouri, and the Southern Illinois Conference Methodist Old Folks' Home for the sale of the said $70,000.00 of bonds to the Burkholder Bond Company is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved. Be it further

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of said Conference are hereby instructed to authorize the St. Louis Union Trust Company to deliver to the National City Bank of St. Louis the said bonds when and as issued and to take the receipt of the National City Bank for said bonds. Be it further

RESOLVED, That each and every action taken by the Board of Trustees of this Conference and by the Board of Hospitals and Homes pertaining to the erection of the Old Folks' Home at Lawrenceville, Illinois, be ratified, confirmed and approved.

Vote on resolution, 83 for; none against.

It was moved and seconded that the Board of the Old Folks Home be authorized to sell the present property in St. Francisville and the real estate in Clark County which belongs to the Home; and that the proceeds be used for the Old Folks Home in Lawrenceville.

Carried unanimously.

Moved that an expression of our appreciation of the cheerful, courteous, urbanity and dignity of the presiding Bishop be voted. Carried.

The Conference was then adjourned sine die.

(Signed) Joe F. Berry, President.
W. H. Whitlock, Secretary.

CERTIFICATE

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the resolution adopted by the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held in the city of Lawrenceville, Illinois, on the 25th day of May, 1926.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

RESOLUTIONS.

We, the members of the Southern Illinois Conference, met at Olney, Illinois, in our seventy-fifth session wish to express our sincere appreciation to the people of Olney for their genuine hospitality, to our host, Rev. W. E. Bennett, for his generous spirit and unfailing efforts in caring for the needs of the Conference visitors and for his thoughtfully and prayfully prepared program.

We have been delighted with the messages of Bishop Joseph F. Berry and deeply appreciate his presidency of the Conference in the absence of our resident Bishop. We are deeply thankful that the health of Mrs. Leete has made it possible for Bishop Leete to be present the closing days of the Conference. His wise counsel, brotherly spirit, and most careful administration have brought encouragement to our Conference. Bishop Geo. A. Miller's great message has brought to us a vision of world affairs for which we are devoutly thankful.

To all who have made a contribution toward the success of the Conference—the local leaders, the leaders of the music, and those who appear on the program—we express our sincere thanks.

We wish especially to commend Bishop Berry for his stand for law observance in the conduct of the Sesqui Centennial at Philadelphia.

Prayerfully we consecrate ourselves to the great work of the church during the coming year—Evangelism, World Service, and the promotion of the Kingdom of God.

REPORT OF THE PUBLISHING COMMISSION.

To finance the publishing of the Minutes for 1926 the following rules will be observed:

1. Each pastor (Conference member and supply) is ordered to raise a sum equal to one-fourth of 1 per cent of his cash salary and remit by October 15, 1926.

Each District Superintendent and member in Special Appointment is ordered to pay a sum equal to fifteen cents for each one hundred dollars of cash salary. A minimum of fifty cents and a maximum of five dollars is fixed.

2. Any person coming under the rules and failing to act in harmony with the same shall on the first day of the 1927 session of Conference be referred to the Committee on Conference Relation, or, if a supply pastor, he may not be employed the next year.

3. The publishing commission shall make contracts in advance and publish the 1927 minutes. Also send out apportionments in July, 1927, and such apportionments shall be due before the session of 1927 convenes.

4. Any pastor who has advanced the required amounts for his charge out of his personal funds and shall be removed by the Bishop to another charge should have definite understanding with the Treasurer of the commission before leaving the seat of Conference.

5. All funds for the minute account should be paid to W. M. Brown, Treasurer of the commission.

6. The minutes will be distributed on basis of one copy for each one hundred and fifty dollars cash salary.

C. C. HALL, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, There is a growing demand for a trained ministry and Christian leadership in the church;

WHEREAS, There is an insistent demand for and need of educated and trained Christian men in all business and other spheres of society;

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Church in general and the Southern Illinois Conference in particular are depending on McKendree College for trained young men for the ministry; therefore,

We greatly rejoice in the present prosperity of our McKendree College, as indicated by the largest enrollment of her history; the increase of equipment and endowment and growing strength of the faculty until full recognition has been granted by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; thus enabling some of her graduates to secure positions in north central high schools this year, and placing the old school at the verge of full membership in that Association.

However, we fully realize admission to that Association and continuance in the same, depends upon continued support from the Conference as granted during the past two years, a sum equal to one-fourth of the total amount collected for World Service and McKendree College. Surely we cannot afford to desert the old school at the very threshold of permanent victory; therefore we recommend the continuance of this support.

The year 1927-28 is the Centennial year for McKendree, rounding out one hundred full and consecutive years on the hill, in the cause of Christian education as a college; the first celebration of the kind in all of Methodism. Therefore we trust all members of our Conference and friends of Methodism will join to make of this a great year of rejoicing.

S. A. MATTHEWS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES.

I

Holden Hospital has established a separate fund for hospital service rendered to members of the Conference and their families. Also a fund to give aid to persons needing hospital service and unable to meet its costs.

To replenish these funds and to enable the hospital to meet the increasing demand for such service an offering shall be taken on each charge on Sunday, October 24th, with a view to raising a minimum amount equal to two percent of the pastor's cash salary.

II

The Old Folks' Home is in the midst of its constructive period—therefore it shall be the major cause during the present Conference year, with emphasis upon Sunday, November 21st, immediately preceding Thanksgiving, as "Maintenance Sunday."

The plans for the year center in the dedication of the building on May 25th, 1927. The Conference pledges co-operation for the largest success in this great undertaking.

III

The growth of the Orphanage calls for a budget of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), to meet which there should be a super-observance of Christmas Orphanage giving in all our churches and Sunday schools; and generous co-operation with the field forces through opening pulpits and rendering personal assistance.

The needs of this work require early construction of Hospital Unit and Older Boys' Cottage. The board is authorized to proceed with this construction out of funds available.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee on Bible Cause wishes to report:

We would stress anew with utmost urgency the fact: The Bible is the Word of God, the Way of Life, and the only record of the revealed Will of God, and Fundamental to the progress of the Kingdom of God among men is the circulation of the Holy Scriptures; always open in the hands of the people, and in their own language; and interpreted through a living ministry.

We commend the American Bible Society as an agency of first consideration in the vast work of translating, publishing and circulating the Scriptures and we rejoice in an opportunity to support their work.

(Signed) REV. G. W. HANKS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Since the days of our Pilgrim Fathers there has not been a time wherein the law of God concerning the observance of the Sabbath day has been so universally violated as in this day of our twentieth century. Sober-minded people cannot help but view with alarm the tendency toward a universal non-observance of the Sabbath as God's law has proclaimed it. In view of the most alarming situation this committee would call upon the church and ministers within the bounds of our conference to join, heart and soul, by both precept and example, in a concerted effort to correct this tendency and thus save our generation from a fate that in the past has fallen upon nations who have embarrassed God.

We would here recognize a fine service rendered our nation and our church in this regard by our own Bishop Berry in being foremost in a successful campaign to close the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition on the Lord's day.

May the Church continue to speak through her powers and give God the glory for an achievement that will usher in a new day in which men will remember "the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

C. C. CULLISON, Chairman.
W. I. TERHUNE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We, the Committee on Sunday Schools, offer the following recommendations:

1. That classes be maintained for the training of Christian leaders.

2. That an efficient Cradle Roll Superintendent be appointed in every school, that the little child may have its rightful place in the Church.

3. There is no better literature printed than that of our own press; therefore we urge its use in all departments.

4. Recognizing the importance of Evangelism, we recommend the entire enrollment of the Sunday School as a basis of operation.

5. We recommend constant and definite teaching on Stewardship, particularly with reference to tithes and offerings.

6. As regards Temperance Instruction, let all our teachers be diligent in instilling in the minds of youth the harmfulness of the use of alcohol and tobacco.

7. That reverence for the house of God, and respect for the laws of our country be impressed upon the minds of our children.

E. C. PHILLIPS, Chairman;

REPORT OF THE BOOK COMMITTEE

To the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the Year Ending December 31, 1925.

Fathers and Brethren:

As your representative, charged with the responsibility of supervising and directing the publishing interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we are privileged to bring you an encouraging and inspiring report.

The Methodist Book Concern is being most efficiently managed by those elected by the General Conference for this important task, and by a large group of loyal co-workers associated with them.

Our Church is to be congratulated upon the quality and the variety of the books, periodicals and papers issued by the press of The Methodist Book Concern, and from many signs it is evident that our people are becoming more deeply impressed with the high value of this literature. Our Advocates and the Methodist Review are engaging the interest of a constantly growing constituency. Our pastors and people are recognizing the great value of these publications in the life of the individual, the Church and the nation.

Our Abingdon Religious Education Texts are reaching the highest standards of excellence in every field which they have entered. In all phases of religious education and in general literature the books bearing the imprint of The Abingdon Press are a strong antidote to the vulgar and irreligious publications so common today. The most effective protest against the publications that cheapen and degrade human life is the widest possible circulation of the books that emphasize high ideals and spiritual values.

In the field of Sunday School publications, without seeming to be boastful, we may claim that our Church continues to hold its preeminent position. With the increasing attention being given to religious education today it is very gratifying to know that every form of organization, and every phase of need in this broad field of opportunity, have most careful consideration in our weekly and monthly issues.

With such an agency as our Methodist Book Concern, the primary purpose of which is to print and circulate good literature, the people of our Church have an unparalleled opportunity to promote the highest interests of the Kingdom of God in the earth by doing everything within their power to increase the circulation of our books and other publications. The cooperation of large numbers of pastors, members and friends is gladly acknowledged. Especially would we record the satisfaction with which we regard the work being done by those in both official and non-official relationships who are promoting the circulation of our Church papers. We urge the observance of "Good Literature Day" on Sunday, October 24. And if we may sound a call to the entire Church it is that our people everywhere shall realize the value of the message of our publications seeking to interpret and apply the Spirit of Christ in modern life, and that they give themselves with diligence to such intelligent and persistent efforts as may be necessary to multiply the number of individuals, churches, church schools and other groups availing themselves of the invaluable service of our finely organized, administered and truly Christian press.

We are distributing to the retired preachers of our Conference $325,000.

TEMPERANCE—PROHIBITION.

WHEREAS, Prohibition, as a part of the nation's Charter of Liberties, has destroyed the organized, legalized traffic in intoxicating liquors, saving the nation billions of dollars each year which have flowed as life-giving current into all channels of legitimate business, raising the standard of living and providing new instruments for the enterprise of the people; and

WHEREAS, The population of our colleges has been trebled since the Prohibition law went into effect, while common schools and good roads have progressed as never before, pauperism has declined and the Census Bureau of the United States Reports the population of our penal institutions decreased; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we humbly thank God for the blessings He has bestowed upon the country because of his righteous policy; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we pledge to State and Nation our energetic cooperation in the enforcement of this law; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we protest against the appointment or retention of prohibition officers who do not believe in prohibition as a policy, of wet judges who are to try violators of the law, of prosecuting attorneys hostile to the principles of prohibition and of government officers of any kind charged with administration of prohibition who are not whole-heartedly in favor of that policy; also be it

RESOLVED, That while giving loyal support to our own Temperance Society we will stand back of and support the Anti-Saloon League, "The Church in Action" and that we will use our influence to induce our people to stand back of the league until prohibition becomes the enforced law of the land.

We recommend as members on the Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, the following:

Special Report—Temperance Committee.

INASMUCH as the Commercial Club of Granite City, Illinois, has started proceedings against the Fairmont Jockey Club and the Madison County Kennel Club because these clubs are operating in Madison County near Collinsville; and

INASMUCH as the Tri-City Ministerial Association took action endorsing the cause which the Commercial Club had taken up; and

INASMUCH as the stand of the Ministerial Association was based on the fact that the clubs were operating contrary to the Illinois Anti-Gambling laws, and that the clubs were injurious to the morals of the community; and

INASMUCH as a committee from the Commercial Club has visited State's Attorney Brown of Madison County and laid before him the legal documents concerning the case; and

WHEREAS, He is to give his decision next Monday, September 27th; be it therefore

RESOLVED, That the Southern Illinois Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session at Olney, Ill., endorse the cause taken up by the Granite City Commercial Club and the Tri-City Ministerial Association to close these race tracks.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In view of the compelling needs of a torn and bleeding world, and the great opportunity that the transient condition of the age offers for the presenting of a glorious gospel of hope to the nations that have become shaken in their faith in the old religions; we, your Committee, recommend that all our Churches be supplied information regarding the needs and opportunities of the world field, that this worthy cause may make its appeal to all.

Respectfully submitted,
OWEN WRIGHT, Chairman.
C. S. TRITT, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has again demonstrated what consecrated talents can do when imbued with the Spirit of God, and given to the deliberate task of inspiring and educating for the promotion of Christ's Kingdom in distant lands.

Greater offerings, more prayer and more interest than ever before, has been the result. No doubt more missionaries can be sent out as the result of such blessings.

We are grateful for such an organization and for the splendid work it is accomplishing. We urge pastors to endorse by prayer, cooperation, and inspiration, the work and deliberations of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

HOME MISSIONS.

Realizing the spirit of harmony existing between the Protestant Churches of America and their disposition to cooperate in all the practical work of the Kingdom of God, magnifying the doctrines in which they agree and minifying the points in which they have not seen alike:

1. We affectionately urge all our people to consider, in the organization and maintenance of churches, the interest of the Kingdom of God above the separate denominational interest.

2. And request our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and all our District Superintendents to make a thorough study of Home Missions expenditures with the purpose of reducing missionary aid, as soon as possible, of non-supporting Churches in over-churched communities where the responsibility is divided with other churches, equitable adjustment would be better.

3. We request our Annual Conference to appoint an active Committee which in connection and consultation with the District Superintendents, shall study, list, and report to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension with their recommendation the Church which may be deemed to be located in over-churched communities.

Therefore, your Committee recommends the cooperation between District Superintendents, the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and the endorsement of both these strong and wise resolutions which have been ratified by our Board of Bishops.

J. B. JOHNSON;
M. L. RHEIN;
C. M. PRINCE, Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We commend very highly the great work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern Illinois Conference. The untiring zeal and fine spirit of Chrisitan love and devotion in which they carry forward their great work of ministering among the sick and needy in every walk of life.

We heartily endorse the work they are doing among the foreigners in East St. Louis through the "Settlement House," also for ministry of Holden Hospital, as well as many other deeds of fine Christian service and ministry. They are entitled to all the support the Conference can give them.

STANDING RULES OF CONFERENCE.

1. When any member of the Conference intends to object to the passage of the character of any member, he shall hand the name of such member to the President, who shall pass the name by and direct the case to be investigated.

2. When any one of our members is called from earth, it shall be the duty of the nearest pastor or District Superintendent of the district to notify all the preachers in the district of such death and of the time set for the funeral service.

3. At each session of Conference a publisher shall be elected to publish the Minutes of the next session, who shall be authorized to make arrangements and enter into a contract for the publication in advance of the session.

4. The District Superintendent of the district and the preacher in charge of the station where the Conference is to be held, together with the presidents of the several Conference societies, are instructed to arrange the program of religious exercises and, if practicable, secure their publication in the Western Christian Advocate.

5. The Board of Stewards shall consist of six members of the Conference, each of whom shall serve three years, two being selected at each session of the Conference. The Conference may, at its discretion, add two laymen, to be elected annually. The Board shall organize each year by electing a president, secretary, and treasurer, whose names shall be published in the Conference Minutes.

6. When the names of candidates for admission on trial or for orders are called, they shall, if present, be called forward and introduced to the Conference.

7. All candidates for recognition of orders shall, unless excused by vote of the Conference, be examined in the same manner as candidates for ordination, and the Committee on Conference Relation shall inquire into the character and fitness for the traveling connection of each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full connection, or for readmission into the Conference, and all persons desiring a change of relation or any special appointment.

8. There shall be a meeting of the Statistical Secretaries with the Conference Treasurer at eight o'clock Saturday morning, for the purpose of comparing the money reported in the statistical tables.

9. When a member of the Annual Conference dies, the Conference shall appropriate one hundred dollars to provide a monument for him. The Conference to elect annually a custodian of Monument Fund, who shall apportion the amount necessary to this fund to the several charges on the basis of the amount paid by the charge for pastoral support the previous year. The pastor to report this under the head of other collections. The publisher of the Minutes shall reserve a column in the statistical tables for this report.

10. No person in the second year's course of study shall be placed on the Statistician or Treasurer's force.

11. The Stewards are authorized to take annually from the pro rata due the claimants from the Book Concern a sum according to their discretion, not to exceed 10 per cent of their indebtedness to the Book Concern, until it shall be paid in full.

12. All reports of committees and resolutions shall be handed to the Secretary in duplicate.

13. No person shall have his orders recognized who comes from a church that requires a lower standard of literary qualifications than the Methodist Episcopal Church, without passing an examination with us.

14. To admit on trial any candidate who is over thirty-five years of age, it shall require a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting, provided the two-thirds equal a majority of all members of the Conference.

15. All charges entertaining the Annual Conference shall provide lodging and breakfast only, leaving the attendants to provide for the midday and evening meals. Provided, this does not apply to superannuated members, their wives, the widows of deceased ministers, deaconesses and guests officially invited, who shall have full entertainment. The Committee on Entertainment shall see that sufficient and wholesome meals shall be provided at reasonable rates.

16. All members of the Conference under appointment as Conference Evangelists shall, on the call of their names for passage of character, report their work for the past year, stating number and place of revival meetings held, number professed conversions, and accessions to membership of the church.

17. The reports of the pastors shall be filed not later than Thursday morning of Conference week, and if such reports are not in, the report of the previous year will be used instead and the names of delinquents published in the Minutes.

18. On the first day of the Conference, at the hour following the Communion Service, a memorial shall be held for the ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The Bishop shall appoint someone to deliver the address, and also an alternate.

19. The Secretary of this Conference and the publisher of Minutes shall edit the Minutes each year before printing same. The printed Minutes of the Conference shall be the official journal of the Conference. The publishers of the Minutes shall send one copy of each year's Minutes by mail free to each retired minister of the Conference and to each widow of deceased ministers of the Conference.

20. Every effective member of the Conference shall contribute to the support of our summer school an amount equal to one-third of one per cent of his cash salary.

21. It shall require two-thirds of those present and voting to change or suspend any of these rules, except Rule Fourteen, which has its own provision.

MEMOIRS.

JOHN WESLEY FLINT, D.D.

John Wesley Flint was born near Lebanon, Illinois, January 9, 1849. He was the fourth child and second son of William and Mary Flint. From 1849 to 1867 he lived where he was born, attending the country schools during the winter months. At the early age of seven he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, during a revival that was held by the Rev. Asa Snell in the autumn of 1856. He was received into full membership in the summer of 1861, by Rev. J. H. Halloway. Although he had been received into the church he was not satisfied with his religious experience. In February, 1862, in a revival meeting held by Dr. T. A. Eaton at Emerald Mound Church, near Trenton, he sought earnestly and persistently until he realized the deep desire of his heart from early childhood, a knowledge of sins forgiven.

After this spiritual awakening he had a clear call to the Christian ministry. He did not speak to any one about his call. But at every opportunity at class meeting and love feast he gave testimony to the saving grace of God. The leaders and church people sensed this conviction and spoke to him about it.

He was licensed first as an Exhorter and preached his first sermon as an Exhorter in his own home church near Trenton, on July 14, 1872. On August the 3rd, 1872, he was examined before the Lebanon Quarterly Conference and given Local Preacher's License which was signed by Dr. Geo. H. Hughey as Presiding Elder.

His entrance into McKendree College as a student was made in September of 1867. He repeatedly dropped out to help in the work of the farm, once to teach a country school, and once to act as supply pastor of the Freeburg Circuit in 1872, this being his first pastorate.

In June, 1874, he was graduated from McKendree College as Valedictorian of his class. His Alma Mater years after honored him with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

At the annual session of the Southern Illinois Conference held in Centralia, Ill., and presided over by Bishop R. S. Foster, September, 1875, he was admitted into the conference on trial. On his way to this conference the happy event of his marriage to Miss Minerva Elzira Robertson of Freeburg, Ill., occurred on September 6, 1875. He served the following charges: Sparta, 1875; Benton, 1876; Corinth, 1877-8; Mt. Vernon Circuit, 1879-80; Chester and Palestine, 1881-3; Anna and Jonesboro, 1884-5; Sumner, 1886; Fairfield, 1887-8; Alton, 1889-90; Mt. Vernon District, 1891-6; Belleville, 1897-8; Vandalia District, 1899-1904; Murphysboro, 1905-7; Lawrenceville, 1908-11; Flora, 1912-14; Fairfield a second time, 1915-20. After forty-five years of uninterrupted service he retired from the active itinerancy. Two of the most beautiful and efficient church buildings in our conference are monuments to his masterful and wise leadership, namely, Lawrenceville and Flora churches.

On retirement, he with his wife, who was quite broken in health, went to Madison, Wis., to make his home with his two youngest daughters. He served several small charges in and around Madison as a supply. For eighteen months he was Chaplain of the Methodist Hospital at that place. In January, 1924, he was called for the third pastorate of Fairfield, which he supplied until conference. During this time one of the trials of his life fell upon him in the sudden going of his devoted and loving companion, Mrs. Flint.

Dr. Flint passed to his reward in the hospital at Madison, Wis., July 4, 1926. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Mary Morgan, Columbia, Mo., and Miss Annie E. Flint, Madison, Wis.; a son, Mr. Roy G. Flint, Fairfield, Ill., and eleven grandchildren, with a host of friends, to mourn his demise.

Dr. Flint's remains were brought to Lebanon, Ill., for the funeral and interment, which was attended by thirty-six members of the conference, including all the District Superintendents. The following resolution from the Lawrenceville church was read by Mr. J. B. Stout as a part of the funeral service:

The Official Board of the Lawrenceville Methodist Episcopal Church hereby expresses its appreciation of the ministry of Dr. John Wesley Flint. He came to us in 1908 by appointment of Bishop F. M. Bristol and for four successive years he and his estimable wife were received by a united and satisfied church. In those four years the church grew in numbers, power and influence. In those four years the church conceived, planned, built, dedicated and practically paid for a splendid new church building without a dissenting vote in the Board at any time, or a dissenting voice in the congregation. He spoke to us in faultless English; he directed us in faultless leadership; he lived among us in faultless fellowship; he preached to us a faultless theology; and he ministered to us in faultless love and devotion. Our own broken hearts go out to the loved ones and friends who today mourn his going, with love and Christian affection.

(Signed) A. M. MILLIGAN, Chairman.
WALTER A. COCHRAN, Secretary.

Lawrenceville, Ill., July 6, 1926.

REV. ALBERT VANDAVEER.

Albert Vandaveer was born on the 6th day of December, 1850, near Mt. Erie, Illinois; here he grew to manhood. He attended the common schools until he was 21 years of age, then he attended a Normal school at Fairfield, Illinois; he then attended one term at McKendree College, after which he taught school several years. He was married to Miss Emma Carson on the 17th day of July, 1873; to this union seven children were born, namely, Robert Allen, Albert Jennings, Miriam L., Homer C., Bertha A., Heber C., and Ralph G. Robert A., Homer C., and Bertha A. died in infancy.

Brother Vandaveer was converted at seventeen years of age; was licensed to preach and joined the Southern Illinois Conference on trial in the fall of 1886 at Vandalia, Illinois. He was admitted in full connection in 1888 and ordained Deacon by Bishop J. P. Newman at East St. Louis. He was ordained Elder in 1895 by Bishop I. W. Joyce at Metropolis, Illinois. Brother Vandaveer served the following charges: Assistant pastor to Rev. Silas Green on Bone Gap Circuit, one year; Sumner Circuit, one year; Willow Hill, two years; at the end of this year he was left without an appointment to attend school. He went to Garrett Biblical Institute and remained two and one-half years; he was then called to Kinmundy to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Rev. W. T. Brannum. His next charge was Watson Circuit two years, Moccasin charge two years, Avena one year, Xenia three years, Beaucoup two years, Troy two years, Huey two years, Calhoun one year, Browns one year; and at the end of this year in the fall of 1909 he took the Retired relation and moved to Chandler, Texas.

He never lost interest in the work of the Lord; he preached when opportunity offered until about a year before his death when his voice failed. He taught a class in the Chandler Sunday School as long as he was able. He was always a man of prayer and as he had to drop out of the church and Sunday School, he increased his hours of devotion until night and day like Enoch of old, he communed with God and he was not for God took him.

About the middle of March he was taken with a severe attack of "flu" and passed away on the 21st day of March, 1926. During his illness he suffered severely, but the end came so quietly that those in the room did not know when he passed away. He was a good and true soldier of Jesus Christ and many who are occupying honorable positions, call him their spiritual father. He did his bit for the world, and we can say with the poet:

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

The faithful wife, three sons and one daughter remain to mourn their loss.

MRS. SARAH JANE BRANNUM.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Brannum (nee Scott) died at the home of her son, O. W. Brannum, near Beaucoup, at 1:30 o'clock, January 16, 1926, at the age of 87 years, 9 months and 19 days. She was born near Freeburg, Ill., March 27, 1838.

At the age of 24 years she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she remained a member until the time of her death.

On January 17, 1864, she was united in marriage to W. T. Brannum, who for a few years before his death on December 5, 1892, was a member of the Southern Illinois Conference. To this union was born five children: Jennie (Mrs. J. E. Walker) of East St. Louis; John of Ashley; Oscar of Beaucoup; Perry of Redlands, Calif.; and Cora Alice, who died in March, 1901.

Funeral services were held in the Beaucoup M. E. Church, Sunday, January 17th, at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Wigham conducted the services. The remains were laid to rest in Beaucoup cemetery.

MRS. EMILY LOUISA ENGLISH.

Mrs. Emily Louisa English, daughter of Oliver P. and Eliza Hiestand. was born at Calhoun, Richland County, Illinois, January 29, 1842, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Gates, Belleville, Kansas, March 27, 1926.

She was married to Levi C. English, a minister of the Southern Illinois Conference, in 1858. To them were born nine children, three of whom are living: Mrs. J. E. Gates, Belleville, Kansas; O. A. English, Robinson, Illinois, and A. F. English, Houston, Texas. Alice (Mrs. J. M. Harlan), Addie (Mrs. J. M. Harlan), Fannie (Mrs. F. E. Lathrop), Maude (Mrs. E. E. Lindsay), Lela, and Paul preceded her in death. Mrs. English is survived also by fifteen grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

At the death of her husband at Robinson, Illinois, in 1886, Mrs. English was left with a number of small children. For years she devoted her life to the care and education of her children, and grandchildren left motherless. In 1899 she left her home and moved to Evanston, Illinois, to assist her three then unmarried children through Northwestern University. This task having been accomplished, she returned to Robinson, Illinois, where she spent the remainder of her life, except for a few winters spent with her daughter in Kansas.

The three living children were with Mrs. English at the time of her death. The body was brought to Robinson, Illinois, Monday, March 29. At the family residence at 3:00 p. m. Tuesday, March 30, the burial service was read and prayer offered by her pastor, the Rev. J. S. Cummins, in the presence of the family and relatives. Burial was private at the old cemetery at Robinson, Illinois.

MRS. ELIZABETH RUTHERFORD.

Elizabeth Brown was born near Russellville, Logan County, Kentucky, February 6, 1830, and came with her parents to Fayette County, Illinois, more than eighty years ago and grew to womanhood.

On May 15, 1850, she was united in marriage to John Laboytaux, who later became a Union soldier and was fatally wounded in the battle of Shiloh. One daughter was born to this union.

September 2, 1870, she was married to Rev. J. P. Rutherford of the Southern Illinois Conference and served with him ten charges in this Conference. Then they lived in the retired relation until his death in 1905, and then for twenty-one years she lived in widowhood but was beloved by all who knew her. She loved the church and was a constant reader of the Bible and the Central Christian Advocate.

She became an invalid and for five years was unable to leave the room, but all the time remaining the cheerful soul and retaining her mental faculties to the end.

On Saturday morning, April 3, 1926, in Vandalia, Illinois, her spirit took immortal flight, being a little more than ninety-six years of age. Her funeral service was held in First Methodist Church, Vandalia, conducted by Dr. C. C. Hall, assisted by Rev. Harmon Etter, pastor of the local Baptist Church.

MRS. M. H. EWERS.

Mrs. Ewers passed away in Delaware, Ohio, too late in the year to secure suitable obituary. It will appear in next year's minutes.

CATHERINE S. HALL.

Catherine S. Hall was born in Monroe, Hart County, Kentucky, December 31, 1848, and passed away July 4, 1925, at Medora, Illinois, aged 76 years, 6 months and 3 days.

At 10 years of age she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour and devoted the rest of her life to Christian service.

She was united in marriage to Rev. Edmund Barnes, December 11, 1871, who preceded her to his reward October 3, 1916, at Chautauqua, Illinois. With him she shared, for over a quarter of a century, the hardships, sorrows, successes and joys of the Ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Many people of Southern Illinois have been helped by her motherly council and have been comforted by her kind ministrations. She spent many hours at the bedside of the sick and in the homes of grief stricken, and give many dollars to orphaned children and to needy people in the name of her church and her Christ. "In as much as she did it unto one of the least of these she did unto Christ."

Five children came into the home: Margret Miller, DesMoines, Iowa; James E. Barnes, Washington, D. C.; Richard Barnes, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Charles McCrellis, Wood River, Ill., and Mrs. Jess Rogers, Ramsey, Ill., all of whom survive the mother.

She was again united in marriage to Shelby Wilson, August 14, 1922. Together with him she leaves five children, eleven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, other relatives and large number of friends far and near who will miss her greatly, but will be inspired to more noble living because of her absence.

"There is no prison for the soul
That dwells within God's boundless peace;
And sickness builds no dungeon walls
For one who knoweth sin's surcease;
HE soars on tireless pinions high
And lives beneath the open sky.

MRS. J. C. KINISON.

Elinor, daughter of G. P. and Margaret Miller, was born on the 25th day of January, 1860, in Mt. Vernon, Ill., and passed away in her home in Mt. Vernon on the 29th day of September, 1926. She spent her childhood and early youth in Mt. Vernon; attended the public schools and was a regular attendant at the Presbyterian Sunday School. In early young womanhood she accepted Christ as her Saviour and united with the Presbyterian Church, and later transferred her membership to the Methodist Church. Her father was a soldier in the Civil War, going with Sherman on the March to the Sea and was killed in line of battle on the 4th day of July, 1864, and was buried in a soldier's grave. On the 1st day of January, 1879, she was united in marriage with J. C. Kinison and in the fall of 1889 her husband joined the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and for thirty-four years in the effective relation she shared the joys and sorrows of the parsonage life; for the past three years in the retired relation she and her husband have enjoyed the quietude of their home at 1723 Main Street in Mt. Vernon. She was a faithful true woman of God, a kind and loving disposition, loved and respected by all who knew her. She loved the church and her heart was in the work of the Master; she loved her children with a true mother heart and tried to teach them in the way they should go. She was taken seriously ill on the 17th of September and was extremely ill from the start. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was done to restore her to health, but she grew gradually worse and at 5:30 a. m. September 29th she was not, for God took her. She leaves her husband, the following children: Mrs. Stella Phillips of Centralia, Ill.; Hugh M. Kinison of Akin; Miss Blanche Kinison, a Deaconess and Superintendent of The Engle Settlement in Fairmont, W. Va.; Charles R. Kinison, a teacher in the Illinois University at Urbana; Frank W. and J. Paul Kinison of Mt. Vernon, and Harmon F. Kinison of West Frankfort; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah J. Smith of Centralia and Mrs. Minnie Irvin of Belle Rive, Ill., and one brother, G. P. Miller of Mt. Vernon. The funeral was conducted from the Epworth M. E. Church at 2:00 p. m. September 30, 1926, Dr. C. L. Peterson, District Superintendent, in charge of the service; Rev. N. C. Henderson, pastor of the church, and Rev. O. W. Pratt of the Presbyterian Church read the Scripture. Rev. Charles Atchison led the prayer, Dr. C. C. Hall delivered the funeral message, Dr. O. L. Markman led the concluding prayer. The body was laid to rest in the Oakwood Cemetery.

"Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep."

Not all vouchers were received. There should be over 25,000 instead of 20,828 in the W. F. M. S. What was given for Old Folks' Home was not recorded. It would be more than this year's deficit.
